

SC022 Introduction to Health and Safety at Construction Sites

Course Outline:

Training course aimed at all levels of an organization. The objective is to introduce the attendees to the basic concepts of Health and Safety on Construction Sites

This Basic Health and Safety Course is directed towards persons at all levels of employment for anyone who works on a construction site. It is important that everybody is informed and trained on best practice methods which make this work-place safer. This course consists of a build up towards how health and safety was developed throughout the years, the difference between environment and occupation awareness and their regulations respectively; the importance of management approach and the coordination between management and workers.

Who May Apply?

Employers

Workers

Owners of Construction Site

Site Managers

Anyone involved within the construction industry

Learning Objectives:

- Definition of Health and Safety
- History
- Regulations and Legal framework in Malta
- Legal obligations of Employer and Employee
- Management approach
- General Principles of Ergonomics, Manual Handling, Noise, Housekeeping, Signage, Emergency Procedures, Chemical Handling, Work Equipment, PPE

Course Duration:

5 Hours:

4 Hours of Theory

1 Hour Practical

Certification:

An attendance certificate will be given to all attendees.

This does not have an expiry date however we suggest that a refresher course is taken to keep up-to-date with any changes mainly regarding regulations and practical guidelines.